COBURN'S DAHLIA BOOK

1937

EASTWOOD DAHLIA GARDENS
James F. Coburn
2297 Coolidge Ave. Akron, Ohio
We take pleasure in presenting this fine line of Modern Dahlias. Many are imported from other countries. Our stock is field grown without forcing which assures the very best quality for either exhibition or field production. Each year we remove the rogues which have not grown so well and only offer to you those varieties that have proven reliable. It is our policy to give our customers the very best dahlias possible. We have had a good year in 1936 and hope to continue so in 1937.

GENERAL TERMS OF SALE—
The prices quoted are for first class quality stock only. Every order placed with us must be as represented. Orders filled in rotation. Roots or plants received from us are guaranteed to be in good growing condition at time of delivery, true to name, and satisfactory to the buyer. If for any of the foregoing reasons the customer is dissatisfied, the goods may be returned to us and the purchase price refunded or replacements made at the discretion of the purchaser.

This is all for 1937. There is'nt any more. I will not list anything that will not stack up to my views of what a dahlia should be, in fact I have a lot of new varieties that I intend to scrap, as not being good enough for me to list in this catalogue. My policy is to handle reliable goods only that I can recommend and that will give the utmost in satisfaction to my customers.
